

When I arrived I found Mr. M. the most excellent spirits - she has written you an account of the matter, which was ~~but~~ brief enough to be sure, but will enable you to constructive unformal reports - she went to the peace meeting at the Amundson - Mrs. Hale has wished by them ever maintained that war has ~~been~~ better than peace - for profiting - & was really the sins of Peace!!! - she is not worth talking to ~~at~~ not at all - the papers keep firing away at us you know that Maria has been posted - & her name is bandied about in the papers like household words - in office words - never mind - Henry has received many insults - & letters the last was most alarming informing Maria in a friendly way that a plot was laid to personally injure herself & her husband & to remove of you look - the 3d
- Henry was some what impressed that there might be some danger to Mr. Shabman took a carriage & took his wife, son & me - & Henry - down to Heymouth where Lizzy already is & I found them all well though in a stirred up state. But Mary better - I came directly back - for though I am losing all my various circumstances - seem to make it best for me to remain there - I am with Maria our house is shut - I go in occasionally to see that all is right - but don't see any moths on the carpet - I feel more afraid of spiders injuring it -

We have just got papers from Thompson the dear creature - Dr Box was torn all to pieces there has a good deal of indignation among his friends but he was bold up - also part of his discussion with Breckenridge is come - fine glorious - I send you Servey's last & wish I could tell you more but if you could know how full my mind & heart are of care, you would wonder that I have written so much - but when we meet at my mouth - there will be not - I am almost exhausted -

There has been no violence offered here as yet though it is said that the excitement does not subside at all - all the four men are leaving 12 Jan - left the town out in one day - all which is very trying to the good folks here they promised to bring from he - I send the money I wanted - but I find it now scarcely they have - $10.00 - three dollars God bless you both - am yours in great haste Caroline Weston -

The gentleman who brought your letter is going to take these this afternoon as I wanted to send considerable I thought I would write & not send by mail

Day of deceased worthies - it has been a great care & trouble to its friends & they could not mourn through they feel solenn - -

Mrs Anne Weston
New Bedford

Mrs Southwick is in such glee that it is a pleasure to see her. She has grown 10 yrs younger - & Knapp - is consoled for all his griefs - you will mourn over the Massachusetts but it will soon I hope & that be no more as folks some times
